DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-7 and 26-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Zeng et al. US 5,170,439 A. Zeng et al. shows all of the features of the instant invention including convolution based filtered backprojection on a circle and line CT system or method using a gantry or C-arm and shift-invariant filtering (abstract, figure 1B, column 2 lines 16-52, and column 5 lines 60-68).

3. Claims 1-6 and 26-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tam US 6,292,525 B1. Tam shows all of the features of the instant invention including convolution based filtered backprojection on a circle and line CT system or method using a gantry or C-arm (column 7 lines 21-22, column 8 lines 6-22, and column 9 lines 37-55).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 10-25 are allowed.

5. Claims 8 and 9 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: In the claims, with all the limitations as claimed, claims 8 and 9 address specifics of data storage and the family of lines used for reconstruction, and claims 10-25 address specifics of the reconstruction geometry. These features are neither shown nor fairly suggested in the prior art.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Katsevich US 2005/0152494 A1 is related to the present application.
